

AUTO SMASHED INTO POLE, NEARLY KILLING FAMILY

Flying Motor Demolished and Owner Lewis
Badly Hurt.

Victor Lewis and his wife and daughter are in the R. Smith Infirmary at Tompkinsville, Staten Island, suffering from injuries received in one of the most unusual auto accidents yet recorded. Mr. Lewis, whose home is at No. 12 West Forty-ninth street, is in a precarious condition, but it is not so much the extent of his injuries that is surprising, as the fact that the whole family was not killed.

The Lewises have been at Ashbury Park, and were returning, in order to attend the Vanderbilt Cup races tomorrow, racing up the Richmond turnpike, they were making time that is said to have been close to sixty miles an hour, when suddenly, directly in front of them, an ice wagon loomed up. At that point the road bends slightly, and is quite narrow. Mr. Lewis had not the fraction of a second to decide what to do, but he gave the steering wheel a jerk that sent the machine clear of the wagon.

Hurled into Debris.
Then smash went the auto into a telephone pole with a force that made splinters of both. Mr. Lewis had not seen the pole. The impact of the collision sent his head through the glass of the wind shield, and jammed the steering wheel against his breast, breaking six ribs. His wife and the child, Nellie, four years old, were thrown directly over his head, over the broken telephone pole, and on down the road, where they landed on their faces. All were unconscious.

Mrs. Lewis was the first to recover, and she hurried to the aid of her husband and child. Dr. Coleman, of Tompkinsville, was called by persons who saw the accident, and he sent them all to the infirmary. The wife and child were suffering so severely from the shock and their head fall to the ground that it cannot be told how badly they are hurt.

Mr. Lewis received deep cuts and many bruises, and his life is by no means safe.

EXPLOSION PUTS 175 GIRLS IN STAMPEDE.

Their Screams Brought Out
Unneeded Fire Engines, Ambulances and Police Reserves.

The explosion of a drying machine on the second floor of the Leo Box Factory, Varick and Bright streets, Jersey City, today created a panic among the 175 girls employed on the four floors. The explosion did not more than 400 damage to the machine or the building, but the excited young women ran screaming to all exits. They crowded through the windows to the fire-escapes, while others stampeded down the stairways.

Patrolman Dundon, sent in a call for the police reserves, ambulances and the Fire Department. Then he put a ladder up to one of the fire-escapes and helped a half dozen frantic young women down to the street.

When all of the employees were out the firemen investigated and found that the machine had exploded in such a way that there had been no real occasion for the panic. No one was injured badly enough to need a doctor's attention.

THE DISCOVERER

Of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the Great Woman's Remedy for Woman's Ills.

Yours for Health
Lydia E. Pinkham

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
It will entirely cure the worst forms of Female Complaints, Inflammation and Ulceration, Falling and Displacement and consequent Spinal Weakness, and is peculiarly adapted to the Ching of Life.

It has cured more cases of Backache and Local Weakness than any other remedy the world has ever known. It is almost infallible in such cases. It dissolves and expels tumors in an early stage of development, and checks any tendency to cancerous humors.

Irregular, Suppressed or Painful Periods, Weakness of the Stomach, Indigestion, Bloating, Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility quickly yield to it. Deranged organs, causing pain, weight and backache, instantly relieved and permanently cured by its use. Under all circumstances it invigorates the female system and its healthless as water.

It quickly removes that bearing-down feeling, extreme lassitude, "don't care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, irritability, nervousness, dizziness, faintness, sleeplessness, flatulency, melancholy or the "blues" and headache. These are sure indications of Female Weakness, or some derangement of the organs, which this medicine surely cures. Chronic Kidney Complaints and Backache, of either sex, the Vegetable Compound cures.

Those women who refuse to accept anything else are rewarded a hundred thousand times, for they get what they want—a cure. Sold by Druggists everywhere. Refuse all substitutes.
